It's Minnesota, not MN, unless you are sending mail.

Have the opportunity to meet and create a relationship with local vendors and discover the latest farm technology.

"I believe the Central MN Farm Show is important to our community as it brings together the backbone of our economic community with so many of our businesses relying either directly or indirectly on the agri-business works."

Andy Noble, Chair of the Farm Show

Scholarships Available!

Each year the Farm Show Committee awards scholarships to Central Minnesota area high school and college students. Students must be going into an agricultural related field of study.
